Hospital Peer Review
1997 Index

Adverse Drug Events
- Accreditation watch status an evolving process, FEB:19
- Adverse drug events prove costly, deadly, MAR:39

Agency for Health Care Policy and Research
- AHCPR announces latest release of inpatient data, MAR:39
- JCAHO evaluation spurred by quality concerns, AUG:110
- Looking for raw data for benchmarking? NOV:159
- Pneumonia diagnosis? Maybe send them home, APR:47
- User-friendly access to guidelines on the way, JUL:106

Capitation
- Acquisitions to undergo closer scrutiny, JUN:80
- VBAC trend put in reverse, SEP:129

Careers
- Are you ready to work in a managed care environment?, DEC:173
- CPHQ, CQAUR help advance your career, JUN:78
- CPHQ credential: Changing with the field, AUG:115
- CPHQ exam strikes pre-emptively, DEC:174
- Fewer RNs seeking quality credential, DEC:177
- Patient Safety Act could bring one more quality standard, JUN:73
- Surfing the Web can shorten quality search, NOV:158
- What's important — and not — in QM, AUG:114

Clinical pathways/guidelines
- Don't let paths slow down your ideal charting system, FEB:25
- JCAHO will broadcast results on the Internet, MAY:66
- Pneumonia diagnosis? Maybe send them home, APR:47
- Trial of labor vs. repeat cesarean: Let Mom decide, SEP:130
- User-friendly access to guidelines on the way, JUL:106

Computers/Internet
- Beware pitfalls of fraud and abuse program, NOV:165
- CPHQ credential: Changing with the field, AUG:115
- JCAHO will broadcast results on the Internet, MAY:66
- Looking for raw data for benchmarking? NOV:159
- Make your CP the project of the year, OCT:149
- Medical records privacy: Buzzword for 1997, FEB:21
- New medical ID number one step closer to reality, JAN:12
- ORYX compliance made easy — once, MAY:71
- Patients can now get the dirt, MAY:70
- Revamp data sources for measuring performance, MAY:67
- Surfing the Web can shorten quality search, NOV:158
- To design or not to design? JAN:13
- User-friendly access to guidelines on the way, JUL:106
- Web has vast resources — and potential for waste, NOV:161

Credentialing
- AAAHC and JCAHO granted deemed status, MAR:40
- Doctors move to control credentialing process, MAR:31
- Follow 3 steps to manage laser surgery quality, MAR:35
- NCQA's CVO certification under fire from AMA, MAR:32
- To design or not to design? JAN:13
- Will AMAP help or hurt your facility? MAR:29

Discharge planning
- Patients know less than you think, JUL:106
- Substance abuse treatment evolves, AUG:116, SEP:132

Health Care Financing Administration
- AAAHC and JCAHO granted deemed status, MAR:40
- Beware pitfalls of fraud and abuse program, NOV:165
- In-hospital subacute reimbursements under fire, FEB:23
- To design or not to design? JAN:13

HEDIS
- MCO service quality varies, DEC:180
- Plans now require peer review, DEC:177
- Surfing the Web can shorten quality search, NOV:158

Indicators
- How things are done in South Carolina, APR:43
- ORYX: How will it affect you? APR:41
- Patient Safety Act could bring one more quality standard, JUN:73
- Quality efforts can be derailed by superbugs, JAN:5

Joint Commission on Accreditation of Healthcare Organizations
- Accreditation watch status an evolving process, FEB:19
- Anticipate a for-cause, unannounced survey, OCT:139
- Are you ready? Cap changes could threaten your next accreditation, JAN:1
- Be ready for latex questions from JCAHO, JUL:94
- Beware pitfalls of fraud and abuse program, NOV:165
- Dig for sentinel causes; create effective fixes, NOV:167
- Inspecting the inspectors: Could JCAHO's deemed status face a threat? AUG:109
- Is your compliance officer in place? OCT:137
- JCAHO evaluation spurred by quality concerns, AUG:110
- JCAHO-QHR-client form a triangle, SEP:128
- Joint Commission's root-cause analysis model, DEC:185
- Make your CP the project of the year, OCT:149
- ORYX compliance made easy — once, MAY:71
- ORYX: How will it affect you? APR:41
- Reusing single-use devices OK in some cases, MAR:33
- Sample generic survey agenda, SEP:127
- SEIU accuses JCAHO of improprieties, AUG:111
- SEIU and others assail JCAHO, MAY:71
- Should your hospital spring for a mock survey? SEP:125

Need back issues? Call our order department at (800) 688-2421; inside Georgia (404) 262-7436.
Copyright © 1997 American Health Consultants®. Editor: Dorothy Pennachio.

Surfing the Web can shorten quality search, NOV:158
Unannounced survey may follow quality infractions, DEC: 183
What if you don't make the grade? AUG:112
What ORYX means for you, APR:42

Medicare
AAAHC and JCAHO granted deemed status, MAR:40
Beware your staff whistle-blower, DEC:181
Do MCOs dictate eye care? AUG:123
Ensure CP focuses on fraud opportunities, DEC:182
Fraud costs $23 billion each year, OCT:140
In-hospital subacute reimbursements under fire, FEB:23
Inspecting the inspectors: Could JCAHO's deemed status face a threat? AUG:109
In the crosshairs of ProPAC's scope? MAY:65
Is your compliance officer in place? OCT:137
Managed care resurrects 'dumping' fears, JUL:102
Medicare and Medicaid managed care over the top, DEC:180
Medicare fraud hotline expanded, OCT:141
Move Medicare patients into managed care?, APR:58
Patient Safety Act could bring one more quality standard, JUN:73
Prepare for age wave: Assess elderly now, JAN:6
3 Medicare managed care plans offer some choice, DEC:179

National Association for Healthcare Quality
CPHQ, CQAUR help advance your career, JUN:78
CPHQ credential: Changing with the field, AUG:115
What's important — and not — in QM, AUG:114

National Committee for Quality Assurance
AAAHC and JCAHO granted deemed status, MAR:40
MCO service quality varies, DEC:180
NCQA's CVO certification under fire from AMA, MAR:32
Plans now require peer review, DEC:177

Outcomes
Don't waste your measurement resources, APR:55
New medical ID number one step closer to reality, JAN:12
Nurses' report card project under way, JUN:76
Patient Safety Act could bring one more quality standard, JUN:73
Revamp data sources for measuring performance, MAY:67
Success story: How one hospital proved itself, JUN:85

Patient Education
Deal with latex allergy now — it's not going away, JUL:89
Patient Safety Act could bring one more quality standard, JUN:73
Spotting alcohol-dependent patients improves care, JUL:96
Substance abuse treatment evolves, AUG:116, SEP:132

Patient Satisfaction
Don't waste your measurement resources, APR:55
Look to HCIA-Mercer list for profitability, AUG:113
Nurses, consumers fear declining quality of care, JUN:75
Nurses' report card project under way, JUN:76
Patient Safety Act could bring one more quality standard, JUN:73
What if you don't make the grade? AUG:112

Peer review organizations
Beware pitfalls of fraud and abuse program, NOV:165
HQCB profiles the quality profession, NOV:163
In the crosshairs of ProPAC's scope? MAY:65
IPRO auditing HCFA's project, DEC:179
Is your compliance officer in place? OCT:137
Model compliance plan due soon from HHS; consortium readies itself, NOV:157
ORYX compliance made easy — once, MAY:71
ORYX: How will it affect you? APR:41
Plans now require peer review, DEC:177
What ORYX means for you, APR:42

Prevention
Deal with latex allergy now — it's not going away, JUL:89
FDA polices latex labeling, DEC:188
Needlesticks: Help's here, but it's toxic, OCT:155
Spotting alcohol-dependent patients improves care, JUL:96

Quality improvement/management
AAAHC and JCAHO granted deemed status, MAR:40
Acquisitions to undergo closer scrutiny, JUN:80
Are you ready? Cap changes could threaten your next accreditation, JAN:1
Beware pitfalls of fraud and abuse program, NOV:165
Complications paint incomplete quality picture, JUN:82
CPHQ, CQAUR help advance your career, JUN:78
CPHQ credential: Changing with the field, AUG:115
Deal with latex allergy now — it's not going away, JUL:89
Don't let paths slow down your ideal charting system, FEB:25
Emerging MD specialty can help you cut costs, optimize LOS, MAY:61
How Rush became front-page news, FEB:18
In-hospital subacute reimbursements under fire, FEB:23
Is commission 'gimmick' or inspired? JU! :107
Is your compliance officer in place? OCT:137
JCAHO will broadcast results on the Internet, MAY:66
Looking for raw data for benchmarking? NOV:159
Look to HCIA-Mercer list for profitability, AUG:113
Loose lips? Chicago transplant unit garners unwanted scrutiny, FEB:17
Make your CP the project of the year, OCT:149
Medical records privacy: Buzzword for 1997, FEB:21
Move Medicare patients into managed care? APR:58
ORYX: How will it affect you? APR:41
Patient Safety Act could bring one more quality standard, JUN:73
Prepare for age wave: Assess elderly now, JAN:6
Quality efforts can be derailed by superbugs, JAN:5
Revamp data sources for measuring performance, MAY:67
Revitalize your quality council, OCT:150
SEIU and others assail JCAHO, MAY:7
Should your hospital spring for a mock survey? SEP:125

Spotting alcohol-dependent patients improves care, JUL:96
Surfing the Web can shorten quality search, NOV:158
What if you don't make the grade? AUG:112
What ORYX means for you, APR:42
What's important — and not — in QM, AUG:114
Will AMAP help or hurt your facility? MAR:29

Risk management
Beware pitfalls of fraud and abuse program, NOV:165
Deal with latex allergy now — it's not going away, JUL:89
Disclosing errors can reduce exposure, FEB:27
Ensure CP program focuses on fraud opportunities, DEC:182
Fraud costs $23 billion each year, OCT:140
Is your compliance officer in place? OCT:137
Loose lips? Chicago transplant unit garners unwanted scrutiny, FEB:17
Managed care resurrects 'dumping' fears, JUL:102
Model compliance plan due soon from HHS; consortium readies itself, NOV:157
Prudent CP can minimize your risk, OCT:144
Reusing single-use devices OK in some cases, MAR:33

Spath, Patrice
Complications paint incomplete quality picture, JUN:82
Dig for sentinel causes; create effective fixes, NOV:167
Don't let paths slow down your ideal charting system, FEB:25
Don't waste your measurement resources, APR:55
Follow 3 steps to manage laser surgery quality, MAR:35
Managed care resurrects 'dumping' fears, JUL:102
Manage sentinel events by fixing root causes, DEC:184
Revamp data sources for measuring performance, MAY:67
Revitalize your quality council, OCT:150
Substance abuse treatment evolves: A follow-up, SEP:132
To design or not to design? JAN:13

Staff/Administration/Physician Relations
Dig for sentinel causes; create effective fixes, NOV:167
Emerging MD specialty can help you cut costs, optimize LOS, MAY:61
Encourage staff to complain loud and often, OCT:142
Managed care resurrects 'dumping' fears, JUL:102
Reduce cost and length of ventilation, NOV:163
Success story: How one hospital proved itself, JUN:85
VBAC trend put in reverse, SEP:129
Will AMAP help or hurt your facility? MAR:29

Utilization review/management
In-hospital subacute reimbursements under fire, FEB:23
Pneumonia diagnosis? Maybe send them home, APR:47
Reduce cost and length of ventilation, NOV:163
URs may not adhere to criteria, study finds, NOV:165
VBAC trend put in reverse, SEP:129
Ventilation guides save money and discomfort, NOV:164